

New Tiered Structure for Visa Application Fees

Effective June 4, 2010, the Department of State will begin implementing a tiered structure for nonimmigrant visa application processing fees, also called the Machine-Readable Visa (MRV) fee. All applications received on or after Friday, June 4th, 2010 must be accompanied by the new fee amount, regardless of the date the fee was paid. Applicants who have paid an incorrect amount will have to pay the differential at the consular cashier.

The MRV fee is CHF168 (US$140) for the following visa categories – (see a detailed chart at the bottom of this webpage): B (including B1/B2), C, C1/D, D, F, I, J, and M.

The MRV fee is CHF180 (US$150) for the following visa categories (see a detailed chart at the bottom of this webpage): H, L*, O, P, Q, and R.

 An additional fee of 500 USD will be charged to the principal applicant for a Blanket L visa and will be collected at the consulate during the interview. Payment for this supplemental fee is by cash or credit card only.

The MRV fee is CHF 468 (US$390) for E treaty trader/investor visas.

The MRV fee is CHF 420 (US$350) for the K fiancée visa.

Identifying Your Visa Category

Applicants must take special care to identify the correct visa category before paying the MRV fee. Visa type is determined by the purpose of travel (e.g. tourism). If you are uncertain how to correctly identify your purpose of travel, visit the Visa Types page to establish which visa category you should apply for, or consult the chart below which includes the description of each visa category. Each possible purpose of travel is associated with a letter called the “visa symbol,” such as “student (F).” When booking interview appointments through the Call Center, applicants should explain their purpose of travel and verify the appropriate visa category.

Exchange Rate

The Embassy exchange rate is 1.00 USD for CHF 1.2. This rate applies to all consular transactions, including payment of the MRV fee, any corresponding reciprocity fees and supplemental fees for Blanket L1 visas. All fees must be paid in CHF. Please do not use the daily market exchange rate or any other rate.
